

A Regular Meeting of the
Nampa Arts and Historic Preservation Commission
Minutes

Monday, August 8th, 2016
4:00 PM, Baker Room, Public Safety Building
820 2nd St South, 83651

Consent Agenda

The meeting was called to order at 4:08 pm

There was a roll call taken with Commissioners Duarte, Toolson, Richardson, Manning and Fisher. Commissioner Houston came in during the Nampa Proud Branding discussion.

Commissioner Manning moved to accept and approve the June Minutes and Commissioner Duarte seconded. A roll call was taken with all in favor.

New Business

There was discussion on the Nampa Proud branding by Robin Collins and Vickie Holbrook.

There was a hand out and discussion on the downtown sidewalk plan.

Jared gave an update on where we are with the CLG grant this year. The commission would like to have some training from SHPO at the next meeting to discuss some possible ideas for grants next year.

There was discussion on tax credit training and the commission would like to see some training on this as well. Jared will get a hold of SHPO and see if they will also do some training around tax credits.

There was discussion on the old library and where the RFP currently stands. There seems to be other developers interested in the project as well.

Updates

Jennifer Yost gave an update on the façade program. The Façade program has been awarded as a 5 year forgivable loan.

Open Discussion

Commissioner Richardson handed out proposed regulations of the Nampa Arts and Historic Preservation Commission. This basically states that anything that is changed in the downtown historic district comes before this commission first. He would like everyone to read through and mark up and vote on sending this to city council at the next meeting. The commission would like to be more involved in the process of what is used and built in downtown historic district.
