

Nampa Arts Commission Seeks Arts Advocates

(June 14, 2013) – The Nampa Arts Commission seeks qualified and interested applicants to serve on the Commission. There are currently two vacancies.

The mission of the Nampa Arts Commission is to further develop Nampa as a cultural community to enhance the quality of life for residents and to utilize the cultural arts as an economic development catalyst for the community. The Nampa Arts Commission is responsible for the cultural development of the Nampa community in all forms of artistic expression.

To be considered for the Nampa Arts Commission, please send a résumé and a letter of interest to nampaarts@gmail.com by Wednesday, July 3, 2013. The Commission is especially interested in individuals with graphic design or fine arts experience, but all individuals who reside within the city limits are welcome to apply. The Arts Commissioners will review the materials and make recommendations to the Mayor. The Mayor and City Council make final board appointments. Commissioners can serve up to three terms.

For more information, please call Bryce Quarve, Nampa Arts Commission Chair, at 467-8793.
