News Release

Historic Preservation Commission Opportunity

(June 26, 2013) – City of Nampa Historic Preservation Commission is looking for qualified and interested applicants to serve on the Commission.

The Historic Preservation Commission oversees historic districts and promotes historic properties within Nampa. Some of the activities include signage, site surveys and the façade restoration program.

The Commission is looking for someone with a background or professional experience in architecture, history, urban planning, archaeology, engineering or other related disciplines.

Those interested are invited to meet the Commissioners, learn more about current projects and ask questions on Tuesday, July 9, 4pm, in the Buster Baker Room on the first floor of the Public Safety Building.

Please send a resume and letter of interest to tysonk@cityofnampa.us by, July 16, 2013, to be considered for the Nampa Historic Preservation Commission. The Historic Preservation Commission will review the applications and make recommendations to the Mayor. The Mayor and City Council make final board appointments. Commissioners serve three year terms.

For further information, please call the Historic Preservation Staff Liaison at 468-5472.
