Art Walk Includes New Utility Art Boxes

(September 10, 2013) – There is some added excitement included in this month’s Nampa Art Walk on Friday, September 13th in Downtown Nampa. Participants will see several new traffic utility box art projects, other local art displays, as well as special food and drink specials at downtown businesses.

The walk will start at 5pm at the first newly art wrapped traffic utility box, which is located across from Simple Sushi at 1214 1st Street South.

From there the Art Walk continues to view the rest of the new utility art and ends back at 1st Street South, where participants can make their way to the various businesses to view more local art, have some food and drinks, and enjoy the entertainment.

Students from the Idaho Arts Charter School will perform and some special vendors will be participating this week.

This month’s venue is being sponsored by the Nampa Art Walk Team, City of Nampa, Nampa Arts Commission, Idaho Commission on the Arts, National Endowment of the Arts, Simple Sushi, Messenger Pizza, Burnt Orange, Idaho Hop House, Whiskey River and Crescent Brewery.
